ESTABLISHING YOUR TRUST

ACIS provides trust establishments in 3 ways:

1. Settled direct – we provide Settlor - ACIS Settlements Pty Ltd acts as the Settlor and the Trust Deed is prepared and delivered to you for execution by the Trustee. The Trust's jurisdiction will be that in which the Trustee/s execute the Trust Deed and settlement stamp duty may (or may not) apply in that jurisdiction.
2. Settled direct – you provide Settlor - the Trust Deed is prepared and delivered to you for execution by the Settlor and Trustee. The Trust's jurisdiction will be that in which the Trustee/s execute the Trust Deed and settlement stamp duty may (or may not) apply in that jurisdiction.
3. Power of Attorney – ACIS Settlements Pty Ltd acts as the Settlor and ACIS Nominees Pty Ltd will sign the Trust Deed on behalf of the Trustee under Power of Attorney. As all documents are signed in our office, the Trust's settlement jurisdiction will be Queensland and as such no settlement stamp duty will be payable on the Trust Deed in Queensland. The power of attorney is restricted to the act of signing the deed only and does not constitute a general power of attorney i.e. once the deed is signed, the power of attorney effectively ends. If not accompanying your order, the executed power of attorney MUST be returned to us for the trust to be properly established.

For convenience, a blank power of attorney is attached. You should note that a trustee company cannot execute a Power of Attorney prior to its registration.

DATING YOUR TRUST

When establishing your Trust, the following procedures will apply:

1. If the Trust Deed is to be settled direct using ACIS Settlements Pty Ltd as the Settlor, the Trust Deed will be dated when it is executed by the Settlor.
2. If you provide the Settlor, the Trust Deed will be supplied undated.
3. If the Trust Deed is executed under Power of Attorney, the Trust will be dated on the day we receive the properly executed Power of Attorney from you (regardless of the date appearing on the Power of Attorney).

NOTES

It is vital that your Trust Deed is properly executed and the settlement sum received and deposited to a trust bank account BEFORE the trust undertakes any activity or acquires any assets. If the trust deed is not properly executed:

1. The trust may be improperly established, not established at all or invalid;
2. Adverse taxation (particularly CGT) and stamp duties issues may arise.

ROLES WITHIN OUR DISCRETIONARY TRUST

Principal / Alternative Principal – this is the person / who has the right to nominate additional beneficiaries and to appoint and remove trustees. We have introduced the Alternative Principal to address the situation where a Principal has died or is otherwise unable to act for any reason and it becomes difficult to exercise those powers of appointment. It is not mandatory to nominate an Alternative Principal.

Secondary Beneficiaries / Tertiary Beneficiaries – the classes of beneficiaries listed on page 1 are the standard recommended classes which we use. We are able to tailor the classes to your needs if these do not suit. There may be a small additional charge for some amendments to these classes.

Default Beneficiaries – we have removed the position of Default Beneficiary from our Trust Deed following the "Bamford" decision handed down by the High Court in 2010. That decision confirmed the proportional approach to determining a beneficiary's entitlement to income from a trust, and means in practice that provisions deeming income to have been distributed to Default Beneficiaries, may be ineffective.
